

Whakataka te hau ki te uru
Whakataka te hau ki te tonga
Kia mākinakina ki uta
Kia mātaratara ki tai
E hī ake ana te atakura
He tio, he huka, he hau hū
Tīhei mauri ora!

Cease the winds from the west
Cease the winds from the south
Let the breeze blow over the land
Let the breeze blow over the ocean
Let the red-tipped dawn come with a sharpened air
A touch of frost, a promise of a glorious day.

Core Practices

Engagement

work inclusively and without judgement. See local people as the greatest asset, not a 'problem to be fixed'. Proactively reach out and involve families, whānau and the wider community in discussions and decision making.

Empowerment

go beyond 'social service delivery', proactively work alongside local people in ways that encourage them to participate, lead, make decisions and take action themselves. Encourage people to recognise their own power and help ignite their dreams and aspirations.

Connection

build on the positives first and be welcoming. Use soft doors (e.g. coffee groups, local events) to strengthen social connectedness and build trust. Look to link people and ideas with others who can help, explore shared visions and next steps. Seek to build community in all you do.

Core Practices

Collaboration

work together with multiple stakeholders to maximise energy, impact and resources. Make sure local whānau and community leaders are authentically involved and supported to participate.

Relationship focused

value and nurture strong, respectful, reciprocal and long term relationships with families, whānau and the wider community.

Responsive

be willing to change and adapt how things are done to enable the aspirations of local families, whānau and the wider community.

Think and work holistically

if families and whānau are well, children are well. If our whānau, families and children are well, our communities will be too.

Breakout question.

Q1. Take some time to introduce yourselves and your experience of community-led or whānau-led and how this has created positive change for tamariki, rangatahi and whānau.

Q2. What is needed to make the shift from whānau/ community-centred practice to child- led, youth-led, whānau-led and community-led practice?

Kia piki te ora, kia piki te māramatanga
Kia hoki pai atu, Kia hoki pai mai

Let the blessings and protection
Be bestowed upon all of us
To lift our wellbeing, to lift our understanding
So that we may leave well, and return well.
Let us be united as one!
Bind it, fix it, it is done!
